St. James's, September 9.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop of York, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Loyal Clergy of that Dioceſe, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Archbiſhop, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AS your Majeſty's rightful and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Kingdoms was the only adequate Conſolation for the ſudden Loſs of your Royal Father, which the good Providence of God had laid up in Store for your obedient and loyal People; we humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon it, with Hearts truly ſenſible of the Divine Goodneſs to us all in that important Bleſſing, and of the ſtricteſt Obligation, which both the Laws of God and Man have laid us under, to make all poſſible Returns of the moſt affectionate Duty and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government.

Your Majeſty's well known Royal Virtues, your Strength and Vigour of Body and Mind, your gracious and moſt endearing Expreſſions of an affectionate Concern for the Preſervation of the Laws and Liberties of your People, and of (that which is their neceſſary Security) our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church and State, give us juſtly, under God, the ſtrongeſt Confidence that a free Nation could deſire and wiſh for, that your Majeſty's Reign over us will be long and proſperous; and we earneſtly beg your Majeſty to be aſſured of our moſt hearty Prayers to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, joined with our ſincere and ſtrenuous Endeavours in our ſeveral Stations, that it may be ſo; to alleviate, as much as in us lies, the heavy Weight of Government which your Majeſty's long experienced Love to our Country has, ſo happily for us, induced your Majeſty to take upon you. For we are, with the moſt inviolable Affection and Duty, and with the utmoſt Abhorrence of all contrary Attachments whatſoever, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt humble, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects and Servants.

The following humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the Body of the County of York, at the Caſtle of York, the 22d Day of July 1727, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Burlington and the Right Honourable William Pulteney, Eſq; Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the utmoſt Satisfaction we behold you thus happily ſeated on the Britiſh Throne; and whatever Loſs we have ſuſtained in the Death of our late moſt excellent King your Royal Father, we promiſe ourſelves will be ſufficiently made up to us in the auſpicious Government of his illuſtrious Succeſſour.

It ſeems to have been a Happineſs peculiarly reſerved for your Sacred Majeſty, that your Acceſſion to theſe Realms ſhould be as univerſally applauded, as the Death of your Predeceſſour was lamented.

When we ſee this Kingdom make ſo glorious a Figure Abroad, by giving Peace to Europe, whilſt our Publick Credit does ſo eminently flouriſh at Home, we cannot help thinking that theſe Bleſſings could only be derived from that brave and reſolute Steadineſs which was the Glory of your Royal Father's Government, and will perpetuate his Memory to the lateſt Poſterity: And it fills our Hearts with inexpreſſible Joy, when we conſider that the ſame Tranſactions which caſt a Brightneſs on the Cloſe of his late Majeſty's Reign, ſhould be thus happily perfected in the Opening of your's.

The gracious Declaration which you were pleaſed to make at your Acceſſion, and ſince repeat from the Throne, that our Religion and Laws ſhall be ever dear to you, has every way anſwered the Expectation of your Subjects; and as there is nothing great or good which we did not hope from your Majeſty's Reign,

[Price Three Pence.]

Reign, ſo your Majeſty has taken all proper Methods to confirm us in thoſe Hopes.

But unſpeakable is the Tranſport of every true Proteſtant, to behold ſo many Guardians of our Religion in your Royal Family, when we remember they are ſprung from that Queen who refuſed Diadems for her Faith; a Faith which Providence protected in ſo diſtinguiſhed a Manner by the Arms of the Immortal King William, whoſe Memory will be ever beloved by us, eſpecially at this Time, when we feel the happieſt Effects of his Goodneſs in your Majeſty's Adminiſtration; and we cannot ſend your Majeſty a better Prayer, than that your Name may be as dear to Poſterity as his, and your Reign as ſucceſsful as your Royal Father's.

The following humble Addreſs of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Walpole, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes, with the Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Great Torrington, humbly crave Leave to joyn with our Fellow Subjects in the general Condolance on the late melancholly Occaſion by the Death of your Royal Father, and in the univerſal Congratulation in your Majeſty's peaceful Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

Your Majeſty's ardent Deſire to make us a great and happy People; your fix'd Reſolution to preſerve the Conſtitution of this Kingdom inviolable in all its Parts, and to reduce in proper Time the publick Expences; the Honour you have done our Native Language by graciouſly conforming to it, and making it the ſettled Language of your Court; the great Encouragement you have, by your Royal Influence and Example, both formerly and lately given to the Engliſh Trade and Manufactures; and the Approbation you are now pleaſed to ſhew of the Meaſures that were ſo ſeaſonably taken for the Defence of the Rights and Poſſeſſions of this Nation, muſt fill the Hearts of all true Engliſhmen with the livelieſt Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude, and highly merit the Love and Affection of your People, which your Majeſty in your great Wiſdom juſtly eſteems the beſt Support and Security of your Crown.

From ſuch your Royal Declarations and tender Regard for the Welfare of your People, we are more particularly encouraged to hope, that your Majeſty's undoubted Right to Gibraltar and Port Mahon, ſo ſolemnly given up to the Crown of Great Britain by the Treaty of Utrecht, and ſo beneficial to the carrying on the Trade of your Kingdoms, will not ſo much as be queſtioned in any future Congreſs.

We can't but reflect with the greateſt Pleaſure at this Time, (and with due Thankfulneſs to the good Providence of Almighty God, by whom Kings reign) on the unſpeakable Happineſs we now enjoy, and further promiſe ourſelves under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, which (as in Duty bound) we ſhall ever pray may be long and proſperous, undiſturb'd by Foreign Enemies or Civil Commotions; on the additional Bleſſing vouchſafed unto us in your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen, whoſe exemplary Piety and Prudence, and immoveable Attachment to the Proteſtant Intereſt, confirm and increaſe our Hopes of the Happineſs and Stability of your Reign; and on the pleaſing Proſpect we have withal, that there never will be wanting one of your Royal Iſſue to fill and adorn the Throne of Great Britain.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes, High Steward, Under Steward, Gentlemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Vere Beauclair, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AFTER having paid our juſt Tribute of Sorrow to the Aſhes of our late moſt gracious Prince, your Majeſty's Royal Father, (of bleſſed Memory) permit us, Great Sir, to appear in your Royal Preſence with Hearts full of Joy and Comfort, to ſee his Crowns and Virtues deſcend upon your moſt excellent Majeſty, and to hear that moſt pathetick and gracious Declaration your Majeſty was pleaſed to make on a late ſolemn Occaſion.

The many and great Convulſions this free Nation hath formerly undergone and ſuffered; that immenſe Expence of Treaſure and Blood they have been forced to, in reſcuing themſelves, Age after Age, from both Civil and Religious Violence and Oppreſſion, hath now received an ample Recompence in the immediate peaceable Succeſſion of your moſt gracious Majeſty to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors; and in that long Train of Proteſtant Hopes the Britiſh Nation now enjoys from the glorious Sight of your Majeſty's numerous and beautiful Progeny; a Race of Princes born, we aſſure ourſelves, to give Bleſſings to the preſent Age, and to continue the ſame to all ſucceeding Generations.

Theſe happy Proſpects we enjoy in common with our Fellow-Subjects; but as our Situ-

Situation in the Neighbourhood of your Royal Palace of Windſor, hath thrown us more immediately under the Inſpection of your Majeſty and your Royal Predeceſſors, and we have frequently found Favour in your Sight, we humbly beg Leave, on this happy Occaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are firmly reſolved, by our dutiful and loyal Behaviour, to convince the World how ſenſible we are of that peculiar Honour.

That your Majeſty may very long continue to reign the Delight of your Subjects, the Terrour of all your open and concealed Enemies, the Protector of our Civil and Religious Conſtitution, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Head of the Proteſtant Intereſt upon Earth, and may at laſt tranſmit all theſe glorious Titles to lateſt Poſterity, by a Series of Princes of your own Royal Blood, are the inceſſant Wiſhes and Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your moſt excellent Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Colby, Bart. introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the Trinity-Houſe of Deptford Strond, being the Body Corporate of the Mariners of this Kingdom, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, humbly to condole with your Majeſty on the Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; and at the ſame Time to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of the Kingdom are moſt dear to you, and that the Preſervation of our Conſtitution in Church and State, as it is now happily eſtabliſhed, ſhall be your firſt and always your chief Care, fills our Hearts with a juſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and devotes us with the moſt ardent Zeal to your Perſon and Government, and will engage us in Intereſt, as well as Duty, to exert ourſelves in your Majeſty's Sea Service whenever we ſhall be wanted.

Your Majeſty's Royal Aſſurances leave us nothing now to wiſh for, but that your Majeſty may enjoy a long and proſperous Reign over us, bleſſed with your Royal Conſort, ever memorable for her Firmneſs to the Proteſtant Religion; and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your illuſtrious Line to reign over theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our common Seal this 12th Day of July 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Hon. Thomas Lewſon Gower, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme, do beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majeſty upon your Majeſty's peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

As your Majeſty is poſſeſſed of, and enjoys in an eminent Manner, all the good Qualities requiſite to make your Subjects a great and happy People, together with an Inclination to make them ſuch, and a Reſolution to ſecure them in the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights; we do promiſe ourſelves not only the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, which at preſent we enjoy and are ſenſible of, but likewiſe an Addition of all ſuch (if any be wanting) that may be expected from a wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration and Government. It is an unſpeakable Pleaſure that we ſee your Majeſty ſurrounded with ſuch a numerous Royal Iſſue, and happy in a Queen, ever to be eſteemed for her Sincerity and ſteady Adherence to the Proteſtant Religion, and who is ſo great an Exemplar of Virtue and true Piety.

We beg Leave moſt ſolemnly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ever ſtand up in the Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and will be always ready to maintain and ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Power, your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, againſt all Attempts whatſoever.

Given under our common Seal the 15th Day of July, in the firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following humble Addreſs of the Borough of Banff, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Finlater and Seafield, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Banff, beg Leave in the moſt humble Manner to approach your ſacred Perſon, and with the moſt ſincere Hearts to condole with you for the Loſs of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, whoſe mild Adminiſtration and wiſe Government muſt render his Memory dear to all who are Lovers of Liberty, and truly wiſh well to their Country.

Under this great Affliction, your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne is the greateſt and only Comfort we could receive; it cannot but fill the Hearts of all your Subjects with Joy, to ſee the Throne of theſe Realms ſupplied with a Prince truly equal to the Weight of a Crown.

Your Majeſty's known Valour and Conduct render us ſecure againſt all Attacks of our Enemies abroad; and your intimate Knowledge of the Laws, Cuſtoms and Conſtitutions of this Kingdom, your known Love to this your Country, and the Encouragement you have always ſhewn to the truly virtuous and deſerving, make us certain of a wiſe and benign Government at home.

That your Majeſty may long reign the Terrour of your Enemies, the Darling of your People, and in the Poſſeſſion of your Royal Conſort our Gracious Queen, whoſe Vertues has made her beloved and admired by all, and has ſhewn her Sex the moſt refin'd Pattern of Conduct they can follow in every Condition of Life.

That your Majeſty may live to ſee all your Royal Family grown up in the Virtues of their Parents, ſo that after a long and glorious Reign, you may leave this a happy and flouriſhing Kingdom to be govern'd by a Prince who inherits his Father's Valour and Virtues, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants,

The Lord Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of your Borough of Banff.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Clergy, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Pariſh of Barneſtaple, in the County of Devon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Whetham, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE beg Leave to joyn with your Majeſty's loyaleſt Subjects, in Condolance for the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of happy Memory, and in moſt hearty and dutiful Congratulations for your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne.

As we are touch'd with a tender Regret for a Loſs ſo great, ſo univerſal; ſo with the utmoſt Joy and Gratitude we acknowledge the Bounty and Care of Providence over us, in giving us a Succeſſour, whoſe Title to the Crown has been eſtabliſhed by Laws, and recognized by a dutiful loyal People. A Throne no leſs due to your ſacred Majeſty's conſummate Virtues, than to the Privilege of your moſt illuſtrious Birth.

The Experience we have had of your Majeſty in a more private Capacity, gives us ſuch ſure Preſages of a moſt glorious proſperous Reign, as already fills our Hearts with Joy, and almoſt anticipates the Bleſſing.

A Prince ſo entirely Engliſh, will reign in every Engliſh Heart that has any Senſe of Gratitude, any Love for his Country, any Conſcience of Oaths, any Concern for our holy Church eſtabliſhed by Law.

Admit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, on this Occaſion alſo to congratulate your Majeſty's Royal Conſort, whoſe ſteady Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion made her refuſe the brighteſt Splendors of a Popiſh Diadem; the Wiſdom and Piety of whoſe Choice is glorioufly juſtified in her being Britain's Queen.

May Heaven long preſerve your ſacred Majeſties to be a mutual Comfort to each other under the Weight of publick Cares, to be the Glory and Safety of your Majeſty's Dominions, the nurſing Father and nurſing Mother of God's Church, and the happy Parents of a numerous illuſtrious Iſſue, to perpetuate the Bleſſings we enjoy to lateſt Poſterity.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Webſter and ---- Martins, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE preſume to approach your ſacred Perſon, not only to expreſs our deep Concern for the Loſs of our late dread Sovereign your Royal Father, the greateſt and beſt of Kings, whoſe Memory will be ever dear to us, but alſo to congratulate your Majeſty (as we do each other) upon your happy and peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, with the univerſal Joy and Acclamations of all your People.

The Experience we have long had of your Majeſty's princely Care and conſummate Virtues, which have ſhined in every Inſtance of Life,

Life, and have been the conſtant Subjects of our Praiſe and Delight) gave us early Preſages of our future Happineſs, and the Halcyon Days we might expect under the Reign of a Prince form'd for the Good of Mankind.

Nor were our Expectations vain, for no ſooner was your Majeſty aſcended the Throne, but you was pleaſed to give us an agreeable Aſſurance of your Royal Intentions in every thing of the laſt Importance to us, which has extreamly added to the general Joy, and given all your People an inexpreſſible Delight; and which, whilſt our Religion and Liberties, and our moſt excellent Conſtitution are dear to us, will always call for our loudeſt Acknowledgements, and our ſteady Loyalty and Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

Permit us, therefore, Dread Sovereign, to tender our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty, accompanied with your Royal Conſort, the Delight of your People, may long ſway the Britiſh Scepter, and reign in the Hearts of all your Subjects; and when full of Days and Glory you ſhall be received to an unſhaken Kingdom, that your Crowns and Virtues may deſcend to your illuſtrious Progeny, thoſe delightful Pledges of our future Happineſs, till lateſt Poſterity.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lord High Sheriff, Nobility and Heretors of the Shire of Hadingtoun or Eaſt Lothian, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Cokburne, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Herbert Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to expreſs the juſt Senſe we have of the Goodneſs of Almighty God, who upon calling to his Mercy your Royal Father our late moſt graciousSovereign, of glorious Memory, has raiſed your Majeſty to the Throne, and thereby prevented all thoſe Inconveniencies, that even the moſt timerous could figure to themſelves upon ſo ſudden and unexpected a Stroke of Providence.

Your Majeſty's many conſpicuous and royal Virtues, and the ſincere Regard and Concern you have on all Occaſions ſhewn for our Religion, Liberties and Properties, by Law eſtabliſhed, give us full Aſſurance of the Continuation of all the Bleſſings we enjoyed under your Royal Father's moſt mild Government: And as the ſettling the general Peace of Europe was his principal View in all his Actions, ſo it has pleaſed Almighty God to reſerve to your Majeſty the Glory of finiſhing that great Work which he had ſo happily begun, and to give us the agreeable Proſpect of ſeeing it improved by your Royal Wiſdom, to the Advantage of your own People.

As the Divine Providence has hitherto beſtowed on us all the Bleſſings and Advantages we could propoſe to ourſelves from the happy Succeſſion of your Royal Family to the Crown of theſe Realms; ſo we aſſure your Majeſty of our hearty, ſincere and unalterable Reſolutions to preſerve theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, by maintaining and defending, with our Lives and Fortunes, your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government, againſt all your open or ſecret Enemies, and againſt the treacherous Attempts of a Popiſh Pretender to your Crown, and all his Abettors.

May Almighty God prolong your Days and make your Reign Proſperous: May He pour down His beſt Bleſſings on your Royal Conſort our moſt gracious Queen: May his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales and all your Royal Family be ever under the Divine Care and Protection; and may it be the Happineſs of theſe Lands to have one of your Royal Progeny to reign over them to lateſt Poſterity.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Corke, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE were unworthy of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the auſpicious Reign of your Royal Father, if we did not lay hold of this firſt Opportunity of expreſſing the deep Regret with which we feel the Death of that excellent Prince, in our Condolance with your Majeſty upon the melancholly Occaſion; at the ſame Time we beg Leave with Hearts full of the moſt ſincere and unfeigned Joy, (a Joy that would admit of no other Allay) to congratulate your Majeſty on your peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne which alone can alleviate the otherwiſe irreparable Loſs which we, in common with the reſt of your Subjects, muſt have ſuſtained by the Death of our late gracious Sovereign.

The early, the tender and paternal Regard which your Majeſty has expreſſed for our Conſtitution in Church and State, demand from us the higheſt Returns of Gratitude and Loyalty; of which, as the firſt Inſtance, we beg your Majeſty will graciouſly accept our moſt ſolemn Aſſurances, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty againſt all Attempts of your Enemies: Nor is this Profeſſion large, ſince your Majeſty can have none ſuch but who of Conſequence are irreconcileably ours.

As

As your Majeſty is our preſent, ſo we look upon your numerous Royal Iſſue as the Pledges of our future Happineſs; from them we enlarge our Proſpects, and receive a Confidence, that the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Adminiſtration will be perpetuated to our lateſt Poſterity, under Succeſſours of your Royal and illuſtrious Family: And this Confidence we are the more confirmed in, when we conſider the many high and ſhining Vertues and Qualities of your Royal Conſort, which lineally deſcending to her Iſſue, cannot fail to anſwer our moſt ſanguine Expectations.

Late, very late, may we receive thoſe Advantages: Long may you continue to reign over the Hearts of a willing People, a People not more bound to your Majeſty by their Duty than by their Affection.

In Teſtimony whereof the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes, Grand Jury, Merchants, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the ſaid City, have hereunto ſubſcribed their Names, and affixed the Common Seal of the ſaid City, at a General Aſſizes held for the County of the ſaid City, the 21ſt Day of July, in the Firſt Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Grand Jury of the City of Waterford, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Grand Jury of the City of Waterford, being ſenſibly affected with unfeigned Sorrow and Concern, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty the ſudden and unexpected Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory, whoſe Loſs had been inſupportable, if our Hopes were not revived by your Majeſty's quiet and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

As your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration gives us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of the Preſervation of our Religious and Civil Rights, ſo we hope that Affection, as well as Duty, will ever bind the Hearts of grateful Subjects to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

From your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom and Experience, as well as perfect Knowledge of the Conſtitution and true Intereſt of theſe Kingdoms, we promiſe ourſelves an Increaſe of Happineſs; and we pray that your Reign may be long and glorious; and that, by the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, the invaluable Bleſſings of it may be continued to our lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal of the ſaid City, this 14th Day of July, Anno Dom. 1727.

The following humble Addreſs of the Sovereign, Recorder, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town of Kinſale, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

The grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the moſt auſpicious Reign of our late Sovereign, puts us under the higheſt Obligations to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Royal Father; a Loſs ſo very ſurprizing, and at ſo critical a Juncture, as might have proved fatal, had it not been fully repaired by your Majeſty's immediate Succeſſion.

The long Experience we have had of your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, and the tender Regard you have always ſhewn for our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, fills us with ſure and certain Hopes that we ſhall be a happy and free People under a wiſe and gracious King; and we cannot doubt but that all your Subjects will unite in Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and diſtinguiſh themſelves by their faithful Endeavours to ſerve your Majeſty and their Country.

The Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy, and the Proſpect we have of their being continued to us, receive no ſmall Addition from the unparalell'd Character of our good Queen your Royal Conſort; and the numerous and hopeful Iſſue of your Royal Line, give us the delightful Proſpect of tranſmitting our happy Eſtabliſhment to lateſt Poſterity. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſincere and unfeigned Fidelity to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and that we ſhall be always ready to maintain and defend the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſhed, to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all Attempts whatſoever.

And we humbly pray, that your moſt ſacred Majeſty, your Royal Conſort the Queen, and your illuſtrious Iſſue, may ever be the peculiar Care of Heaven, and the Delight of all your Subjects.
